Miscellaneous Information

On January 15, 2022, Scull was at a casino located in Philadelphia when he approached a Table Game Supervisor and after the conversation, he dropped his chips on the ground and threw his drink towards the staff member. An argument ensued and Scull slapped the staff member in the face. After being released by PSP, he rejoined the group of patrons at the Main Entrance to wait for a ride and got into an argument within that group which escalated into another physical altercation. He was permanently banned from the casino and criminally charged by PSP with Harassment on March 4, 2022 and pled guilty.
